2. The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries:

Commissary (2). Volevach (fnu), the former chief of this commissary, became chief of the Basa in Werder. He was replaced on 1 March by Captain Trafimov (fnu) who wore red-bordered silver epaulets.

Commissary (3). Supply officer Gitun (fnu) of this commissary was promoted to captain.

Commissary (4). Supply officer Belyayev (fnu) of this commissary was major and wore red-bordered silver epaulets.

Commissary (8). This commissary still supplied Wittstock and Parchim military posts. Toporkov (fnu) was the chief.

Commissary (9). This commissary with Mashkin (fnu) as chief supplied Brandenburg-Industriefeld military post. It was quartered in the Infanterie Kaserne in Brandenburg. Captain Klimenko (fnu) who wore blue-bordered silver epaulets was the chief of the warehouse in Oranienburg which also belonged to this commissary. Klimenko had been employed with Commissary (5) (Bilyatski) prior to 15 March 1955.

Commissary (11). This commissary with Dobritski, formerly Eromenko, as chief, supplied Brandenburg-Briest military post. It was probably not quartered in the Infanterie Kaserne in Brandenburg. Effective 1 March 1955, Eromenko became chief bookkeeper with the Basa in Werder, and replaced a female bookkeeper who retransferred to the USSR.

Commissary (17). Supply officer Zenoatzki of this commissary directly sold the articles of daily use to the small elements of his unit that was at present dispersed in various areas.

Warehouse XII (7b). It was located in Rangsdorf and was closed temporarily because a sum of 8,000 eastmarks was missing.

The restaurant in Werder (7f) was still located on Eisenbahn Strasse. Chief of this restaurant was a Remmlinger (fnu) who resided in Potsdam.

The political officer of the main bureau and of the Basa in Werder was Captain Gudrov (fnu) who wore blue-bordered silver epaulets. Another warehouse No IX (7g) at an undetermined location was in existence. A Govorushkin (fnu) was employed there.

3. Personnel employed with the commissaries:

Commissary (1) in Finow with Voichenko as chief: Gramadski (fnu), a Russian.
Commissary (9) in Brandenburg-Industriehafen with Mashkina as chief: Kravchenko (fnu), a Russian woman.
Commissary (17) in Briesen with Zenozatski as chief: Kepadhev (fnu), a Russian.
Warehouse II in Finsterwalde: Zenkov (fnu), a Russian.
Warehouse III (6b) in Glindow: Koenitz (fnu), a German.<sup>2</sup>

2. [REDACTED] Comment. No changes were observed in regard to the chiefs of the individual commissary except that Volevach, previously chief of Commissary (2), became chief of the Basa and was replaced by Captain Trafimov. According to available information, Commissary (17) supplies the GA Corps Hq in Finsterwalde, while the GA Regts in Alt Loennewitz and Finsterwalde are supplied by Commissary (3) with Gitun as chief. Co Commissary (17) formerly belonged to the bomber units and once again supplies the Bmr Regt in Briesen. On the other hand, Commissary (14) with Komar as chief reportedly supplied Briesen. [REDACTED] 25X1

[REDACTED] Commissary (17) supplies other units than the GA Corps Hq. Attempts are being made to clarify this question. [REDACTED] 25X1
